COMMON SCHOOL CONVENTION:

To the People of Indiana. During the late session of the Indiana legislature a joint resolution passed that body, recommending a State Common School Convention, to be held at Indianapolis on the fourth Wednesday or 26th day of the present month (May.) This assemblage is to be com- By the President of the United States of America : posed of individuals, voluntarily attending, to deliberate on the great subject of common school education. Soon after the passage of the resolution, a meeting of the citizens of Indianapolis was called and resolutions adopted, inviting the co-operation and attendance of all persons friendly to the cause of common school education throughout the State; and that literary associations engaged in the promotion of education, and voluntary assemblies of the citizens, be requested to
